About This Content

Sleek high-tech machinery, metal and glowing lights are at a core of this fantastic new pack.

Inspired by some of our favorite science-fiction universes, this pack is filled with details you'll need to create the inside of a space-ship, as well as a mining expedition among an alien landscape. Created in the same painterly style as Halloween, Evil Castle, Dungeons & Volcanoes and Royal packs, this unique set of tiles is the perfect addition to your growing library of resources.

Features:

- A smooth, painterly style like the one you'll find in Halloween, Evil Castle, Royal Tiles and Dungeon & Volcanoes tile packs.

- Animated lava autotiles, spaceship walls, alien cliffs and a variety of floors.
- High-tech machinery, including teleportation points, specimen chambers, computer consoles and more.
- Glowing minerals and decorations for outer exploration and space mining.

It's like two things. And they're not even that good I kinda feel ripped off. \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 this don't bye this just google Sci-fi Tile sets you'll get WAAAAAY better\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665then this garbage.. This is a small tileset pack that will add some Sci-Fi interiors to your world, not enough to make a whole game. It would require some modification to add the exteriors of ships and buildings, but works well as a base for those modifications. Having a similar artstyle as the Halloween, Evil Castle, Dungeons & Volcanoes and Royal packs,it works with them for some world-building. Thus, it's not advised as a stand-alone.. Get this with Modern\/Dungeon like tile sets. Perferably on sale. That way you don't feel underwhelmed lf you decide to pick this up for your project... or projects.
